CONSERVATORY AND WINDOW GARDEN---FALL CARE OF ORCHARDS

and other hard wooded plants housed for a dozen.

of water at this season.

Young plants of carnations, chrysand stored in the cellar or cold pit. them frozen up until the frost leaves In taking them into heat during the the ground in the spring. winter do not commence forcing too rapidly. The same applies to forcing for 1867-8 offered the "new tea rose, Marshall Neill," price $1.50 to $3 a CONSERVATORY AND WINDOW plant. Seventy-nine varieties of gladioli were listed at 25 cents each, $2 a dozen, $10 a hundred. Nipety-three varieties of dahlias are listed, thirty-ever-varying yet permanent garden blossoms, selected to give continue from earliest Spring to Snow-time. entire collection of 132 Plants in elever ies for Ten Doilars. Other varieties may estituted. Catalogue on application.

Special Offer For Fall Planting

KNICKERBOCKER NURSERIES ENGLEWOOD, N. J. LILLIE SHOSTAC STRUNSKY.
Landscape Architect & Contractor

CROXTON PREPARED POULTRY MANURE, CROXTON TOBACCO DUST particularly adapted for flowers, and GROUND BONE, and all other WELL ROTTED STABLE MANURE.

Slightly used, bright SLATS and LATH for light packing cases at greatly reduced cost. Write for Pamphlet. N. J. FERTILIZER & CHEMICAL CO.,

open ground as long as the ground can stock of this kind has enabled grow- all times, except when the outside bulk corn, mixing samples for detailed gan during the winter of 1913-14. ers to produce on a scale of sufficient magnitude to make it possible to sell Feverfew, penstemons and veroni- gladioli and dahlias by the hundred cas should be taken up and oleanders at about what was formerly the price

Crooked rows in a garden show that Calla lilies require an abundance the gardener is careless, and while stantly to insure a compact, stocky straight rows may not guarantee suc-Sweet alvssum, mignonette, ten made a careful start, at least. There weeks stock, maurandia, browalia, &c., is no excuse for crooked rows and no be sown now for winter and crooked row garden can ever be made to look neat and trim.

Hollow, decaying logs about the anthemums, eupatorium, stevia, vio- farm or decaying wood around the lets and pinks too small for flowering woodpile furnish a comfortable breedmay be kept safely over winter at a ing place for cutworms. Clean up the night temperature of 40 to 45 de- woodpiles and save trouble next spring.

Strawberries should be mulched with Roses, violets, deutzias, dicentras, straw or leaves as soon as the ground daisies, astilbe for winter and spring freezes. The mulching is not to keep forcing, should be taken up potted the plants from freezing, but to keep Blackberry and raspberry plants should be mulched with stable manure. In the spring work the manure well The catalogue of Eliwanger & Barry into the soil about the plants.

GARDEN.

two of which are "pompone or bouquet window garden during winter, with the sand moist the escaping moisdahlias," offered at 30 cents each, $3 a adverse conditions of sunlight, heat, ture keeps the air moist. dozen, $20 a hundred. Flower lovers short days and long nights, makes it can compare these prices with those necessary to start with good plants be covered with moss. of the present day and congratulate of strong vitality to insure success. main weak all winter.

the confined air of the room by keepthem indoors during cold nights cool weather, exposing them fully to the air, shaded from the dirays of the sun, during fine weather. Plants can be placed in a there, allowing an abundance of air without Wizard Brand Manure. Natures best fertilizer for shrubs and bulbs, lawn, garden, fruit, green-bouse or field crops— WIZARD

SHEEP MANURE gives the soil what it needs to make freight rates on a bag or a carload sent FREE upon request — a post card will bring it. Mail it today.

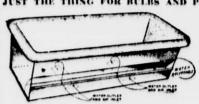

NOW IS THE TIME TO PLANT Hardy Old-Fashioned Flowers

Special Introductory Offer To introduce my stock of these old favorites in the most popular varieties. I will make the following offer: I will sell strong plants that will be sure to bloom next Summer, in these varieties; Achillea, both red and white; Columbine; Hardy Chrysanthemums, all colors; Hardy Pinks; Sweet Williams; Gaillardia; Coreopsis; Foxgloves; Larkspur (Formosum); Hardy Summers; Herperis (or Rocket); German Iris, all colors; Hollyhocks, all colors; Lychnis; Monarda (or Beramot); Physostegis; Phloxes (Kings, Superb), all colors; Valerian (or Garden Heliotrope); Veronica (or Speedwell).

GOOD TO NOVEMBER 30th, 1915 MAKE YOUR OWN SELECTION from these varieties at the special price, $1.00 per dozen; $7.50 per 100.

My new catalog describes all the above varieties and many others; a copy will be mailed to you free. Sent for it today. Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded. W. E. KING, Box 320, Little Silver, New Jersey

$1.00 brings you Window Box That Makes Plants Flower

It can be set inside the window. Will not leak and damage the woodwork. Patented ventilated and drainage bottom. Made of heavy galvanized steel, enameled dark green, 614 in. deep, 812 in. wide and made in any lengths. To introduce and show you this box e will send you by Parcel Post one 30 in

sippi on receipt of $1.00—West of the Mississippi for SUCCESS MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Dwarf FRUIT APPLE CONTROL OF TREES

Home Garden Finest Fruit Also Full Line STANDARD FRUIT TREES CHOICE STOCK

DAFFODILS Extra Choice Bulbs -==

An especially fancy collection of big Trumpet Varieties: the very popular sweet scented Poets' Narcissus; the rich golden vellow Double Van Slons. All the newest and best known vareties. All mother bulbs or mammoth. Will plant spring with plants in pots plunged foreign material and cracked corn. It amounted to several million. to their rims in the garden. The also includes a color plate which repplants should be "headed back," cutting or pinching them back congrowth and to prevent exhaustion by flowering. Foliage plants, of check. Plants grown in pots for winflowering should receive their final shift into pots in which they are to remain over winter, in September Small pots containing neat plants placed among the larger ones of a collection will improve appearance

WEEBER & DON, 114 Chambers St., N.Y.

As often as the weather will permit, early spring. Certain destructive inbeing careful to avoid a strong direct draught upon them. Cold air striking roses is the common cause of mildew. Maintain as nearly a uni- used than when the trees are in foform temperature as possible. o exceed 70 deg. during the day and for the usual collection of window plants. Dryness of the atmosphere is the most troublesome difficulty in window gardening. A good way to overcome this is to nail a narrow strip of thin board around the table or shelf on which the plants stand. Place an inch of sand on the table; this makes each pot set firmly and by keeping the autumn with plants in a weak- the soil and does the plants no good. soil and should have a top dressing lime-sulphur or other suitable wash to developing new, sound branches. Avoid taking plants into the conservatory too soon after they have liquid fertilizer. Chicken manure is been potted and removed from the used with good results, using a quan-small number of fruit trees in the There are various species of borers garden. Gradually accustom them to tity equal to a large tablespoonful to a gallon of hot water and stewed until dissolved, applied when cool once a week or once in two weeks, by dissolving a tablespoonful of finely ground bone in a gallon of hot of 32 deg. to 34 deg. as registered on cutting away the injured bark suffiwater. Give the plants a little of this every week. Ground bone and soot appears of water. Only one treatment can be purchased from any of the each winter is necessary to hold this be seen and assist in the more ready and can be used once a week.

Every farm and country home immediate use, such as witch hazel, sloohol, carbolated vaseline, glycerine absorbent cotton, cotton bandages and

WHERE TO GET MANURE.

Where to get stable manure is a mine, which is universally prears and in some localities is a very sharp knife and moderately stiff wire changes occurred among the ten leading the formerly kept horses now use an automobile. If only a small use an automobile. If only a small use an automobile, we are the peach and thereby gained second place. A vermont pen of Rhode Island Reds quantity is wanted usually a stable newer growth, and thorough lime sul- apple tree borer. can be found in the neighborhood that phur spraying for the San Jose scale can be found in the neighborhood that will yield a sufficient supply for a small garden or for a hotbed or two. Flower gardens require manure quite for a small garden or for a hotbed or two. Flower gardens require manure quite for a hotbed or two obviate spraying after the insects of the fruit tree bark are now in seventh position.

The work of the fruit tree bark beetle or shot hole borer is often first the total production for the week of the fruit tree bark are now in seventh position. s much as vegetable gardens.

stable or sheep manure.

Commercial Grading of Corn.

psylla.

eighteen or twenty parts of water.

ling Moth and Leaf Feeding

In addition to routine dormant tree

Caterpillars.

ting codling moth larvie.

and especially on wild cherries grow-

The grades for commercial corn which were promulgated by the Sec- as well as Lecanium scales in general. moved and burned to prevent its furretary of Agriculture on January 3. are not satisfactorily controlled by the ther increase and spread. 1914, and which went into effect on lime-sulphur spray but should be treated with strong kerosene emuiadopted throughout the corn belt and in the cities in that part of the United This latter is a general term applied to jured. States and at the Gulf ports, but are lantic seaboard. The grades include the classification of white, yellow and mixed corn into six grades and "sample," and have been recognized by the Grain Dealers National Association, the State associations affiliated with this organization, the State Grain Inspection departments of Washington, Minnesota, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and the Department of Agriculture, Commerce and Industries of the State of South Carolina.

In order that the producers, dealers and consumers throughout the United States may more fully understand the correct interpretation of the Government corn grades, somewhat detailed explanations are given in the new butletin of the United States Department of Agriculture, No. 168, Grades for Commercial Corn. The classification chard trees, as the apple and peach, climatic conditions. which was made by the Secretary and became effective July 1, 1914, divided commercial corn into six classes and The eggs are placed in rather conspic- season. The best hedges are obtained "sample." the classification being based on the moisture content of the corn, the color, the amount of damage, foreign material and cracked corn. It also included eleven general rules for during the work of pruning or at close to their base, allowing only a making this classification. Necessarily even with the definite limits for the more important factors, points will arise on which the best experts may where this insect has been excessively foliage from the very bottom to the differ. For this reason the bulletin abundant. In some instances it will top of the hedge, so the branches of analysis, the size of samples, siever Prizes were offered for the greatest The best way to secure plants for for screening, moisture tests, deter number of egz masses obtained, and winter flowering is to start in the mining the amount of damage of corn, the total collected in this work air the plants in the window garden. sects are held in check only by spray- which the wingless parent moth esliage. Many insects of the orchard hould be removed and burned to destroy the caterpillars within.

spend the winter on the trees in the destruction in the course of pruning or other orchard work is practicable and is of much importance in keeping

Insects and Plant Lice.

Tree Hopper.

Orchard scale insects as a class are The work of the buffalo tree hopper best treated after the foliage has usually attracts the attention of the The sur- dropped from the trees. This work observant orchardist, especially during face between the pots, can, if desired, may be done in late fall, during the pruning. This insect punctures the may be done in late fail, during the young twigs in the course of its be contributing factors to this result.

Too much water passing through the earth in the pots impoverishes buds swell to any extent. Spraying a much deformed and weakened ever allied with the Palace show this When a window garden is started in the earth in the pots impoverishes buds swell to any extent. Spraying a much deformed and weakened the autumn with plants in a weak-ened condition they will probably re-Healthy, vigorous plants exhaust the for the San Jose scale with strong > yard also regularly spray the trees attacking fruit trees which may be for the control of this serious insect very effectively searched for and depest. Lime-sulphur concentrate is stroyed during the fall, winter or used in spraying for the San Jose spring. "Worming" for the peach scale, and may be purchased of manu-borer should be begun in early fall Another good fertilizer can be made facturers or made at home. The com- and continued until the trees have water; used when cool. A good fer- a Baume hydrometer, and in prepar- ciently to trace the burrow and then tilizer for roses in pots can be made ing the concentrate at home effort removing the borer with a knife by dissolving a tablespoonful of should be made to secure a wash of hooked wire. Previous to worming. Scotch soot in two quarts of hot about this density. Such a concentrate the soil should be dug away from seedsmen. A solution of ammonia, pest in subjection, but the application location of the borers. Since many made by dissolving one-half ounce of the crystals to two gallons of water, of the twigs, limbs and branches. This yet quite small, very careful work the crystals to two gallons of water, of the twigs, impostant by the found beneficial for pot plants work requires a spray pump, and will be necessary to destroy all of and can be used once a week. on almost any scale, and range in wormed once it is a good practice to size from the so-called bucket pump go over them again. The earth should should have a medicine cabinet sup- suitable for work on a few trees in be drawn around the base of the tree plied with the standard remedies for the yard to the large gasolene power before there is danger of freezing outfits employed in extensive orchards. weather. The same plan should be peroxide, iodine, spirits of campher, More specific information on the San followed in worming the trees in the Jose scale and the preparation at home spring, at which time it will be some-of lime-sulphur concentrate will be what easier to detect the borers besulphur wash. The treatment is also patches under the bark and the casteffective against the pear leaf blister lings which often accumulate in some there are but three weeks to go. Durobviate spraying after the insects beetle or shot hole borer is often first amounted to 2.126 eggs, or relatively Market gardens and good sized have hatched and the foliage is put detected on trees during pruning op401 better than for the corresponding gardens in suburbans towns require ting out. In the Middle and Southern erations in winter and steps should gardens in suburbans towns require this but. In the Shuhe and too be taken as soon as it is discovered Farm's Rhode Island Reds from St. Alsubstitute quite equals this article, rigorous, the woolly apple aphis often to correct the trouble, if possible. The bans, Vt., were an easy first with a yield substitute quite equals this article, risorous, the woony apple apples often to correct the trouble, it possible. The bans, Vt., were an easy first wi which is not only valuable on account maintains itself in colonies here and shot hole borer as a rule attacks trees of forty-seven for the week. which is not only valuable on account of the chemical elements it contains, but because it also adds humus to the soil. For hotbeds it is absolutely necessary unless the hotbeds can be heated by steam pipes.

Many readers in New Jersey have inquired where stable manure in quantities can be obtained. Where the scale insects mentioned, is also on the scale insects mentioned, is also of forty-seven for the week. N. W. Which are in a state of decline from any cause. It winters in various stages in galleries just beneath the drayry's Leghorns from New Haven. Com., got second place by laying forty-one, eggs, and Tom Barron's English bark. Peach trees attacked by this insect and which still have vitality to exude gum at the injured points may in some cases be brought into cendition by severe pruning and an appliquent application as the buds swell in the spring of forty-seven for the week. N. W. Hordryy's Leghorns from New Haven. Com., got second place by laying forty-one, eggs, and Tom Barron's English bark. Peach trees attacked by this insect and which still have vitality to exide gum at the injured points may in some cases be brought into cendition by severe pruning and an appliquent application as the buds swell in the spring of forty-seven for the week. N. W. duantities can be obtained. Where the scale insects mentioned, is also shipments are made over the Erie or Lackawanna railroad the Jersey City peach twig borer; or peach worm, Lackawanna railroad the Jersey City peach twig borer; or peach worm, the lackawanna railroad the Jersey City peach twig borer; or peach worm, at the rate of one pound to the gallous of the second twice wash, as isn of soap, at the rate of one pound to the gallous of the gallous of the second twice wash, as isn of soap, at the rate of one pound to the gallous of the gallous of the second twice wash, as isn of soap, at the rate of one pound to the gallous of the gallous of the second twice wash, as isn of soap, at the rate of one pound to the gallous of the avenue, Jersey City, can supply manure in carload lots. Where shipments are made over the Pennsylvania, Lehigh Valley or New Jersey Central Railroad the New York Stable Manure Company, 273 Washington Street, Jersey City, can supply carplead lots to best advantage. Where load lots to best advantage. Where The adults hibernate in crevices and extent, it is a question of judgment only small quantities of manure are cracks on the trees, resuming activity whether it will be possible to save only small quantities of manure are cracks on the spring. Whether it will be possible to save required it is advisable to use prepared with the first warm days in the spring. The trees attacked by this insect. If the follows: Spring spraying of pears for the San infestation is rather severe, it usually Jose scale has in addition a very indicates that the tree is beyond hope marked value in checking the pear of saving. Individual branches on psylla.

The so-called terrapin scale of peach, insect and should be promptly re-

In regions where the seventeen year Ed ocust has been abundant young orchsion, or with a miscible (mixable) oil. ands especially are often severely inseveral commercial preparations which winter particular attention should be not in use in the cities along the At- are used at the rate of one part to given to cutting out the injured Destroy Wintering Stages of Cod- weakened that they will not support any considerable crop of fruit. Burn Trash to Destroy Grape Insects.

Several grap insects winter among spraying, much good work may be done in the control of orchard in ects the fallen grape leaves in trash in of wormy apples, passes the winter together and burned. Such work will in silken cocoons under scales of bark, be of value against the grape berry in silken cocoons under scales of bark, be of value against the grape leaf folder, which in crevices and in knot holes on the hibernate in the pupal condition in The Hagerstown Fair is particularly trunks and larger limbs of the apple. District and larger limbs of the apple old trees especially should be thoroughly scraped with a dull be or sim oughly scraped with a dull be or sim flea beetle and the grape leaf hopper of the winter as adults. The Hagerstown Fair is particularly noted for its great poultry show. A panel of the winter as adults are supported by the winter as adults. oughly scraped with a dull re or sim-ilar instrument to destroy the hiberna-spend the winter as adults under garded by poultrymen that fine strings trash of all kinds in and about vine-of birds are sent there by leading fan-The apple tree tent caterpillar win- yards, and the destruction of trash as ters in the egg stage on various or- indicated will expose them to adverse ing along fences or on waste land. uous dark-colored belts or bands from planting quite small plants that around the smaller twigs. These are are well branched, not more than six readily observed and may be collected or eight inches high. Keep them well and destroyed without much trouble trimmed back to induce branching other times. Very effective work in little top growth until the plants are the collection of egg masses has al- thickly branched close to the ground. ready been accomplished in regions This will give a solid mass of green gives somewhat in detail methods of be possible to enlist the interest of the plants will not show anywhere.

LEADERS WILL SHOW POULTRY AT PALACE

Management Expects That There Will Be Fully 1,000 Exhibitors This Year.

mining the amount of damage of corn. It with plants in pots plunged eir rims in the garden. The should be "headed back," cutor pinching them back cony to insure a compact, stocky hand to prevent exhaustion owering. Foliage plants, of should be grown on without. Plants grown in pots for wintime into pots in which they are main over winter, in September and nover winter, in September and pots containing neat plants.

The plants collected in this work amounted to several million.

The fall webworm winters in the gupal stage on apple and various other trees. The flimsy cocoon is easily recognized from the hairs of the caterbill pots containing neat plants.

The Palace show of this year is to be called "The Remarkable Show." That of last will be remembered, was rious types of kernels from the standpoint of color. This builtetin may be had free upon application to the United States Department of Agriculture, washington, D. C., as long as the supply lasts.

FALL CARE OF ORCHARDS.

Valuable work in the control of or
The Palace show of this year is to be called "The Remarkable Show." That of last will we called "The Remarkable Show." The flimsy cocoon is easily recognized from the hairs of the caterby to insure a compact, stocky had free upon application to the United States Department of Agriculture, washington, D. C., as long as the supply lasts.

FALL CARE OF ORCHARDS.

Valuable work in the control of or
The Palace show of this year is to be called "The Remarkable Show." That of limits of the caterby the color of the caterby the deferming the amount of damage of corn. It also includes a color plate which represents, as nearly as possible, the various types of kernels from the standpoint of color. This builtein may be cocoon is easily to the loose silk. The cocoons occur in all sorts of sheltered places, as in crevices, not holes, under backed, in rail fences, and in similar situations.

Another insect of general feeding habits is the white marked tussock to the caterthe called "The Remarka

Valuable work in the control of orchard insect pests may be accomplished during the fall, winter and early spring. Certain destructive insects are held in check only by spraying during the dormant period of trees, when stronger washes may be used than when the trees are in folliage. Many insects of the orchard a less extent, elsewhere the winter nests of the leaf crumpler are conspicuous objects on fruit trees, especially quince, pear and apple. The larvæ winter in tough, horn shaped cases to which are usually attached several dead leaves. These nests should be removed and burned to defermine the constant of the city and easily reached, is to be its seen. Again two floors have been taken, an experiment last year that proved an unqualified success, and again there will be a model farm, but this year run by the management itself. The chicken world scarcely needs to be reminded who this management is, the Empire Poultry Association with Robert Empire Poultry Association, with Robert Seaman its president and L. D. Howel its secretary, started nine years ago as a little Long Island show and for sev-eral years now, by brilliant executive work, has been brought up to the

One thousand exhibitors is a high mark to set, but that number seems probable this year. The specialty clubs year and their meetings are to be among the leading features. The Palace show has evolved into a great poultry convention of many sides. It has its convention of many sides. It has its brilliant competitions for birds, with ex-cellent premiums; its week has meet-ing after meeting of representatives of all phases of the industry, business mer of the poultry world coming from all parts of the country; it gives practical and highly valuable demonstrations of all that is new and valuable in poultry

BRITISH HENS AHEAD; FINISH CLOSE AT HAND

Tom Barron's Leghorns Keep Lead in Laying Contest at Storrs College.

STORRS, Conn., Oct. 16.—No more en-ries can be accepted for the fifth anabsorbent cotton, cotton bandages and such medicines as are likely to be required in an emergency. Keep the required in an emergency. Keep the medicines in the cabinet and not scattered all over the house and have every bottle plainly labelled.

Of Agriculture Farmers' Bulletin 659.

Certain other scale insect pests States apple trees should be regularly which may be present on the trees, wormed in the spring and fall for the as the cherry scale, oyster shell scale, roundheaded apple tree borer. This insect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the specific for the sect attacks the trees near the ground for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the suit the college has already been obliged with the original for the suit the college has already been obliged to reject many applications and the reserved has a section of the section The winners of the present contest are a mite, which is universally present on quantity on the soil. The use of a ing the forty-ninth week a number of passed two Connecticut pens of Leg-horns, thus moving up to third place. A week last year. Hillwiew may go by the Leghorns on the home yandottes view Poultry Farm, St. Albans. Rhode Island Reds. I. Peasley, Cheshire, Conn., White 1.941 Farm, Redding Ridge, 1,921 Conn. White Leghorns.

W. Hendryx. New Haven. Conn., White Leghorns.
P. Robinson. Calverton, N. Y. White Leghorns.
G. Platt, Wallingford, Pa., White Leghorns.

G. Platt, Wallingford, Pa., White Leghorns.

Solution of the propularity throughout Europe because of their heavy egg production. There are silver and gold Campines, and both varieties lay white eggs of good size and, like the Leghorns, sell-

PRATT ENTRIES DO WELL. Win Many Prizes at Annual Hagerstown Fair.

Maryland's great agricultural exposiand quality of exhibits, in attendance and enthusiasm the fair held October ciers from all Eastern States. poultry show this year was remarkable for the number and quality of birds on exhibition. Practically all classes were large in size and the competition was particularly keep

POULTRY DIRECTORY

Costs More but Saves Money for Poultrymen

The first cost of RU-BER-OID is a little more than that of ordinary prepared roofings, but the largest poultry farms find it economical to use RU-BER-OID because it does not crack, tear, melt or blow off; because it gives permanent protection with practically no repairs. In roofing your poultry houses, be sure to get

You can tell the genuine by the "Ru-ber-oid Man" shown below, which appears on every roll. Your dealer has it or can get it for you. Be sure to get the genuine. There are more than 300 cheap imitations of RU-BER-OID Roofing. Free Plans for Poultry Houses Our book "Building a Poultry House", contains complete plans of the best types of poultry houses for both small and large flocks. This and other valuable books are free. Mark and mail the

RU-BER-OID Roofing Wears Longer

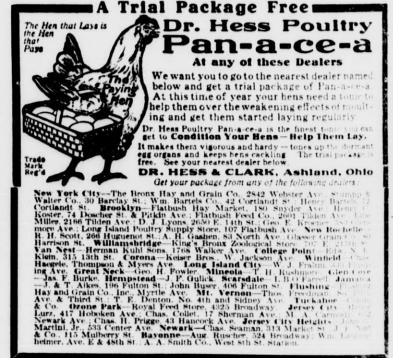

Chicago

The Standard Paint Co.

New York

"After having considerable experience with different types of prepared roofings," says Prof. Lewis, of the New Jersey State Agricultural Experiment Stations, "I can safely say that of all I have used Ru-Ber-OID is superior, as to ease of laying, appearance and durability. In view of these facts it is our policy to use RU-BER-OID wherever Building Book Coupon THE STANDARD PAINT CO.
Woolworth Building, New York
Bend samples of RU-BER-OID and beek

Your Pullets should beLaying Now and strong enough. Hens, too, should be through the molt and laying regularly. With fresh egg prices so high, every day lost is money lost. Get the eggs. Give Pratts Poultry Regulator It makes them lay. Puts more "health" into feed, reduces waste, prevents sickness. It does so much and costs so little—about a cent per hen per month—you cannot afford to try to get along without it. Guaranteed to satisfy or money back.
25 lb. pail, $2.50. Packages at $1.00, 50c and 25c. SOME OTHER ESSENTIALS: Pratts Poultry Disinfectant, $1.00 a gallon. atts Powdered Lice Killer, 50c and 25c. Pratts Roup Remedy (Tablets and Powder), $1.00, 50c and 25c. They do even more than their names suggest.
PRATTS are easy to get. You will find them at Feed, Seed and Poultry Supply Houses.

BELGIUM TRUE HOME OF GOLDEN CAMPINES

1.507 good size and like the Leghorns, sel-

The golden Campine is a handsome fowl, about the same size as our Leghorns. It is alert and active and its brilliant golden body and color, con-trasting sharply with the intense greenish black barring, is much admired. Its lobes are white and combs single, fall-ing over to one side on the female. The Campine male is hen feathered; by operations during the leafless vineyards and much may be done to tion, the Hagerstown Fair, scored its that is, he does not possess the long period. The codling moth, the cause destroy them if the trash be raked greatest success this year. In number flowing, sharp jointed hackle and saddle feathers usually seen on a male, nor the long curving sickles of a cock, and he colored exactly like the hen.

LEGHORNS LEAD LAYERS.

British Hens Are Ahead in National Contest in Missouri. MOUNTAIN GROVE, Mo., Oct. 16 .- The highest ten pens for the eleven months in the national egg laying contest are: Pen 21, Single Comb White Leghorns Privet hedges may be planted at this particularly keen.

season. The best hedges are obtained In view of the above facts the Pratt White Legherns, Pennsylvania, 806 eggs; In view of the above facts the Pratt Food Company of Philadelphia has every reason to be proud of the record made by the birds bred at the Pratt Poultry Experiment Station and exhibited by that institution. The winnings of the Pratt birds were as follows.

R. C. Black Minorcas—Cock, 1 and 2; cockerel, 1 and 2; pullet, 1 and 2; hen, 1 and 2; old pen, 1; young pen, 1.
Pekin Ducks—Young ducks, 1 and 2;
young drake, 1 and 2; pen, 1.
White Leghorns, Pennsylvania, 806 eggs; Pen 74.
Single Comb White Leghorns.
England, 805 eggs; Pen 74.
Single Comb Reds, Pennsylvania, 745 eggs; Pen 3, Single Comb White Leghorns, Pennsylvania, 736 eggs; Pen 29.
Black Leghorns, Georgia, 733 eggs; 1. Single Comb White Pennsylvania, 104 eggs; Pen 43, White Orpingtons, Wisconsin, 722 eggs; Pen 76, Rhode Island Whites, White Orpington, Wisconsin, 722 eggs; Pen 76, Rhode Island Whites, White Orpington, Wisconsin, 722 eggs; Pen 76, Rhode Island Whites, White Orpington, Wisconsin, 722 eggs; Pen 8, Single Comb White Leghorns, Pennsylvania, 806 eggs; Pen 74.
Single Comb Reds, Pennsylvania, 745
eggs; Pen 3, Single Comb White Leghorns, Pennsylvania, 745 eggs; Pen 43, White Orpingtons, Wisconsin, 722 eggs; Pen 43, White Orpington, Wisconsin, 722 eggs; Pen 8, Single Comb White Leghorns, Pennsylvania, 806 eggs; Pen 74.
Single Comb Reds, Pennsylvania, 745
eggs; Pen 75, Rhode Island KEYS They are stand
iffe Dealers Everyanis

CONKEY SAYS:

NEW YORK SUNDAY SUN This bureau acts as 'Central' to connect buyer and seller. It tells you how when and where to buy stock subplies, baby chicks, eggs for hatching, co.

Timely news of the poultry world, special articles of interest, &c., will be found in the Sunday Sun.

Helpful hints by an expert poultryman about breeds poultryman about dapted to your wants ways of securing best for Personal replies to every quiry. No charge to either for this service. Address

POULTRY INFORMATION BUREAF New York Sun, N. 1